Article 23(1)

EGYPT

I was a resident of _____(insert the name of the country under whose treaty the alien claims exemption) on the date of my arrival in the United States. I am not a United States citizen. I have not been lawfully accorded the privilege of residing permanently in the United States as an immigrant.

I am temporarily present in the United States for the primary purpose of studying at Louisiana State University.

I will receive compensation for personal services performed in the United States. This compensation qualifies for exemption from withholding of federal income tax under the tax treaty between the United States and _____(insert the name of the country under whose treaty the alien claims exemption) in an amount not in excess of $3000 for any taxable year. I have not previously claimed an income tax exemption under this treaty for income received as a teacher, researcher, or student before the date of my arrival in the United States.

I will be present in the United States only for such period of time as may be reasonably or customarily required to effectuate the purpose of this visit.

I arrived in the United States on _____(insert the date of the alien's last arrival in the United States before beginning study at the United States educational institution). The treaty exemption is available only for compensation paid during a period of five taxable years beginning with the taxable year that includes my arrival date, and for such period of time as is necessary to complete, as a full-time student, educational requirements as a candidate for a postgraduate or professional degree from a recognized educational institution.
